

San Francisco Bay Area

Public Sandbag information

The National Weather Service is not an agency that furnishes sand bags or other preparedness materials. We work closely with local emergency services personnel across the area and they are the contacts for this information. This information is provided in response to public inquiries and is furnished via local County and City Emergency Management. It may not be all inclusive.

Please contact your local county or city office of emergency services for any questions or further details.

County	Website for Information
Sonoma	http://sonomacounty.ca.gov/CAO/News/Storm-Update-December-2014/
Napa	http://www.countyofnapa.org/Pages/DepartmentContent.aspx?id=4294978108
Marin	http://marinsheriff.org/about_emergency.aspx?gi_id=45
San Francisco	http://sfdpw.org/index.aspx?page=1810 Please Dial 3-1-1 first to confirm availability
San Mateo	http://hsd.smcsheriff.com/sites/default/files/Sandbags2014.pdf
Contra Costa	http://ca-contracostacounty2.civicplus.com/DocumentCenter/Home/View/30161
Alameda	http://www.acgov.org/pwa/info/sandbag.htm
Santa Clara	http://valleywater.org/services/sandbagsites.aspx
Santa Cruz	http://sccounty01.co.santa-cruz.ca.us/oes/Sandbag%20Locations.htm
San Benito	http://www.cosb.us/safety/emergency-preparedness/#.VIh-cdKjNcb
Monterey	http://montereycountyoes.blogspot.com/2014/12/winter-storm-prep-free-sand-sandbags.html

For more information on upcoming weather in the Bay Area:

www.weather.gov/sanfrancisco

For preparedness of all types of hazards

Visit the California Governor's Office of Emergency Services:

<http://www.caloes.ca.gov/>